

Install a Rain Garden!

Water Quality is everyone's concern.

Infiltrate and pollinate...install a rain garden.

Rain gardens are shallow depressions planted with native flowers and grasses to collect runoff from roads, sidewalks, and roofs. The water soaks in the garden and the plants take up the nutrients that would otherwise end up in our local lakes and rivers. Infiltrate and pollinate for the environment one flower garden at a time. CLICK to LEARN MORE

Make the Watershed Connection.