

Redirect Your Downspout!

Water Quality
is everyone's concern.

Direct your rain water to help your lawn and gardens.

Redirected downspouts can irrigate your yard with free water while reducing the amount water and pollution that washes into streets and storm sewer systems. It is a small and inexpensive way for you to easily reduce your watering frequency while helping our local lakes and streams. CLICK to LEARN MORE

Make the Watershed Connection.