

Do the Dirty Deed and Compost!

Water Quality is everyone's concern.

Don't waste the waste...save those kitchen scraps!

Creating compost from yard waste and kitchen scraps can provide a source of organic matter for your flowers and gardens. Compost can improve plant growth and reduce your need for chemicals and fertilizers. Reducing chemicals is good for your garden and also good for our lakes and rivers and the environment as a whole. CLICK to LEARN MORE

Make the Watershed Connection.