

Fuller (Todd County)

OVERVIEW

Fuller Lake is a small, relatively undeveloped lake in Todd County. The lake has good water quality with much of its watershed being in the Grey Eagle State Wildlife Management Area. Access to the lake is usually gained from County Road 98 right-of-way and traveling up the broad connection between the lake and Prairie Brook. Low water levels can impede travel to the lake. Increased residential development along the lake's shoreline has the potential to degrade important habitat and effect water quality if proper land use practices are not employed.
